Gerald Carey retired from his positions as principal flute of the Quad City Symphony in 2008 – a position he held since 1978. As an orchestral flutist, he has been principal flute of the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, the New Orleans Summer Pops Orchestra, the Knox-Galesburg Symphony, the Eastman Symphonic Wind Ensemble (under the direction of Frederick Fennell), and the Eastman Philharmonia (under the direction of Howard Hanson).

He retired from Western Illinois University in 1999 where he was Professor of Flute and a founding member of the Camerata Woodwind Quintet. He currently resides in Chicago. He teaches Summer Flute Camps at Illinois Valley Community College and the Westminster Choir College Conservatory in Princeton, New Jersey. Mr. Carey has been a faculty member of the Eastman School of Music, the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, the University of Illinois, and DePaul University, Chicago.

Internationally, he has presented concerts, recitals, and masterclasses in Argentina, Australia, Austria, Canada, China, Germany, Finland, France, Hong Kong, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Peru, Poland, Taiwan, and the former Yugoslavia. He has recorded for Coronet, Mercury, Everest, Music Minus One, and Opus One Records.

As an active and Lifetime member of the National Flute Association, he has served as President (1990-91), Convention Program Chair (New Orleans, 1989), Competitions Coordinator, Exhibits Coordinator, and Program Book Editor. He was given the NFA Distinguished Service Award at the 2008 Convention – the fifth such award in the 36 years of the NFA.
